In Shanghai she became ~~adopted~~^{of} with Doctor Ting Tsung Chung and his wife, who on 1-2-1944 have adopted her as per the attached Certificate. Questioned she stated that she became adopted in order to obtain Chinese Citizenship as she intended to marry a Chinese, who did not wish to marry her should she not a Chinese citizen. Having obtained the adoption Certificate, she failed to prolong her German passport and on 20-8-44 made an application to the Nan'king Government for Chinese Citizenship. On 17-11-44 she received a reply from the Ministry of Home Affairs advising her to forward the application through Shanghai City Government. She made the application as instructed but so far received no reply.

Her father and mother, being Refugees are residing at the Designated Area (503 Ward Road) but she resides at 313/301 Route Vallon. her application for permit to rent the above Apartment, having been approved by Mr. Kubota Director for the Affairs of Stateless Refugees, on 7-10-1943.

Having obtained the adoption Certificate, and not yet the Chinese Citizenship she visited the Chinese Pao Chia Office at Loukavel Police Station, where her German Resident Certificate was exchanged for Chinese Resident Certificate No. 284579, which she now possesses.
